

Oh Jackson, Jackson, Jackson

(To the tune of Dreidle Dreidle Dreidle)

Chorus:

Oh, Jackson, Jackson, Jackson
The common people shout
Be damned elitist gentry
Old Hickory's about

Our treaties with the Natives
He brazenly ignored
He forced them off to territories
Of lands yet unexplored

Chorus

He planned to stop all patronage
Replaced the moneyed classes
With scores of his supporters
Whose roots came from the grasses

Chorus

Restrain the central gov'ment
Promote man's self-reliance
He won the South and westerners
Inflamed Federalists' defiance

Chorus

When Congress and Supreme Court
Said US Bank recharter
Our Jackson just defied them
Destroyed it in the barter

Chorus

The Tariff of Abomination
South Carolina did protest
If he could pass such laws now
Would slavery be next?

Chorus

He had a "Kitchen Cabinet"
Of friends whose truth he trusted
With specie circular payments
The economy he busted

Chorus

The presidential veto
Twelve times he did invoke
The members of the Congress
His neck did want to choke

Chorus
