Constantine’s Dilemma – Task Sheet #2

DIRECTIONS: Before you make a decision, review each of the three advisor’s statements. In the spaces provided answer each question.

1. The FOUR most important points made by the governmental advisor were?
   *
   *
   *
   *

2. The FOUR most important points made by the general were?
   *
   *
   *
   *

3. The FOUR most important points made by the Pope were?
   *
   *
   *
   *

4. Of these three advisors, Constantine should consider the advice of ________________________ as most important because  ___________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________

5. Of these three advisors, Constantine should the advice of _________________________ as least important because  _______________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________